The Perfect T V Repairman

Recently the Bureau of Consumer Affairs in my city has been checking on T V repairmen to see if they actually do the work they claim they have done Or have they been fooling their customers? This is the story of Joe, the most perfect gentleman and the finest and most honest T.V repairman in the city

Mrs Ethel K called him on the phone He had fixed her set two days previously. It didn't work at all She said he better come over at once, or she would report him to the Bureau Since his fine repair shop was but one block from her home, he was there within ten minutes. Then she began her temper tantrum

"Now, look here, I don't have to stand for any nonsense from you. Whatever went wrong with it is only your fault. Yesterday I could get channels 13, 11 5, and 4 very clearly. The rest came in good. No complaint about that But this afternoon, I can't even get the set to light up What did you do to it? Take out my good picture tube and give me an old one? I am certain you must have switched some of the other tubes How could you do a thing like that to me? We have given you all our business and have even recommended you to our friends What has happened to you? This is most dreadful

He took one quick glance at the T V set and spoke softly to her

"If you go in the other room and leave me alone it will be fixed in a jiffy"

Sure enough, he kept that promise What was wrong? She had vacuumed the rugs, taken out the current plug of the TV set and forgot to replace it!

The Excuse

The speed limit is sixty miles an hour You are in a hurry — late for an important business appointment So you step on the gas. The needle, if you want to look at it, shows you are going at seventy miles an hour You sort of tell yourself since there is no traffic on the highway, you are safe. Especially since you had your car checked out last week by your favorite mechanic.

Then you begin to hear a strange sound. It's not coming from your motor. It gets louder and louder. In your mirror, what do you see? A police patrol car is chasing you, and he gets next to you and signals you to stop. So you pull up ahead and get off on the shoulder

"Where do you think you are going? To a fire? Let me see your license."

Bet you ten to one your mind is working on what to tell him — how to get out of that ticket. Got a good excuse? Officer John Wilson came up against this one:

"She was doing 70 mph, and I stopped her car I think she was about sixty years old. I told her she was doing 70 mph. She came back at me with a honey of an excuse

'That's impossible, officer. Won't stand up in a court of law. I can prove that I wasn't doing seventy miles an hour My house is in Ridgewood exactly twenty-seven miles from this very spot. So you can see you will have to lose your case How can I cover seventy miles, when I only covered twenty-seven miles? I must be on my way now officer"

The Lucky Customer

He was about twenty-two or twenty-three at the most Dressed in a blue suit and wearing a white shirt, he looked sort of handsome. No sooner had he gone through the revolving door into the world's largest department store, than he was stopped. A man pinned a white carnation on the coat lapel.

"Congratulations," said the store manager. 'You are the lucky customer of the day. Here are $150.00 worth of cash certificates Purchase whatever you so desire

'And here are two tickets to the prize winning show of the year," said another man "One for you and one for the girl."

And after the show just present this card to the Midnight Club A dinner with wine for two Be our guest," said another man.

The young man was definitely puzzled Then he noticed a camera pointed at him

'Smile pleasantly, ' advised a charming young girl 'In two seconds you will be on TV All over the country people will be watching you and listening to what you have to say Now you come into this department store with some objective in mind. Will you please tell our TV audience what it is you wanted"

The young man was sort of stunned by all the attention so suddenly showered upon him He coughed slightly and then spoke:

"I want to thank you for all of this. What was it I wanted? Well, I came here to rob the main cashier on the ninth floor But now, I just can't do it"

YOU can manage in the Majors with STRAT-O-MATIC Baseball.

As a STRAT-O-MATIC Major League Manager, you'll make the actual game-deciding moves Houk, Hodges, Alston, Weaver and Murtaugh make. You'll decide when to pinch-hit, play the infield in, change pitchers, signal for hit-and-run, bunt or hit away. Only STRAT-O-MATIC BASEBALL brings you so realistically face-to-face with the decisions a Big League Manager makes on the playing fields.

You're always arguing with that guy down the block about who can manage a Big League team better. Well now you can settle that argument under as close to real game conditions as you can find this side of a Major League dugout. And have great fun doing it playing STRAT-O-MATIC Baseball, the real-to-life game that uses actual big league players according to their proven abilities. It's strictly up to YOU to manage your players — to pull them together under your leadership into the most powerful team possible.

You know your baseball. What to expect from clutch-hitting Roberto Clemente with men on base. How to pitch to Willie Mays with Willie McCovey on deck. How the good control pitchers like Fergy Jenkins seem to get stronger in the late innings while "wild men" like Nolan Ryan tire. In STRAT-O-MATIC its up to you to get the most out of your players.

DO THINGS YOUR WAY

As you watch a game on TV, aren't there times when you disagree with the manager's decision? When you'd hold Tom Seaver back an extra day to match the Cardinal's Ace, Bob Gibson. Well STRAT-O-MATIC is your chance to play Big League baseball YOUR way.

As a STRAT-O-MATIC Manager, if you make the right decisions, you're going to win. That's because we've taken every possible statistic on 480 Big League players and put them into a computer. All this vital information is brought together on an individual performance card for EACH player. In STRAT-O-MATIC, a player performs as he does on the field. Brooks Robinson makes those incredible plays at third. Frank Howard hits them out of sight.

EASY-TO-PLAY

Sounds complicated? It's not. The computer does all the hard figuring. Playing STRAT-O-MATIC is easy. It's only the decisions that are hard. Should you hit and run with Boog Powell at bat. It reduces the chances of a groundball Double Play. But you take a chance on the free-swinging Powell taking a whiff as the runner is cut down at second. It's YOUR decision in STRAT-O-MATIC.

STRAT-O-MATIC Baseball begins when you make up your lineup. Would you go with Manager Spanky Anderson's day-to-day lineup for Cincinnati? Or would you slot Pete Rose in the important third place in the order rather than as lead-off? When, as Yankee Manager, is it time to yank Stan Bahnsen? Do you bring in McDaniel or Aker?

PLAY YOUR DREAM GAMES

Manage STRAT-O-MATIC against all the kids in the neighborhood. Play actual American and National League schedules. Play your inter-league "dream games" — Vida Blue on the mound for Oakland against the Mets with Tom Seaver. You can even pick your own ALL-STAR teams and manage them in a 7-game "World Series" rather than the inconclusive single game.

If you like Big League Baseball, you'll love STRAT-O-MATIC. And just playing it will help you to become a "headier" player yourself. Fill in the coupon and we'll mail you a colorful brochure explaining STRAT-O-MATIC BASEBALL in detail. It's free and includes free samples.
